Housing

We offer a range of housing that is affordable compared to most municipalities in the GTA. We have everything from rural estate homes and modern subdivisions, to condominiums and historic character homes.

The Town of Halton Hills has provided leadership in planning for the housing needs of both existing and future residents. We've developed a framework that offers diversity in housing choices that makes efficient use of land and provides choices for people from diverse social and economic backgrounds.

Education

The educational system in Halton Hills is of the highest standard. Two school boards, public and Catholic, provide educational opportunities from junior kindergarten to grade 12. We are also close to many highly ranked universities and colleges, which serve both our residents and our business community.

Shopping & Dining

With over 60 stores and services, the newly expanded Georgetown Marketplace offers a one-stop indoor shopping experience. Toronto Premium Outlets™ located in the Premier Gateway boasts over 80 high end outlet stores, a true shopping mecca. Downtown Georgetown and Acton are our historic cores with a thriving business area filled with family-owned shops, restaurants and more. Downtowns' also proudly host summer markets full of products fresh from local farms.

Recreation and The Arts

We have a great variety of recreational and open space activities and facilities available, including...

Conservation Lands

Activities abound year round in beautiful natural settings, including skiing, mountain biking, camping, hiking, fishing, swimming and canoeing. The Bruce Trail, a winding ribbon of natural beauty, follows the Niagara Escarpment from Queenston to Tobermory.

Parks

There are 47 parks in Halton Hills, including destination parks such as the Old Seed House Garden and Remembrance Park, splash pads, leash free zones and active sports facilities that include skate parks, ball diamonds and sports fields.

Arenas

Halton Hills is known as the "Home of the Little NHL", boasting six ice surfaces for hockey, figure skating and recreational skating for all ages.

Leisure Centre

The Gellert Community Centre, located in south Georgetown, features a 25 metre swimming pool, play pool, hot tub, and multi-purpose Hall.

Golf Courses

There is a great selection of golf courses country clubs on the beautiful lands of Halton. A great way to connect with the local and business community, as well as a challenge and opportunity to improve your game.

Soccer

Residents of all ages take to the many soccer pitches located throughout Town, many with full lighting and two with artificial turf. Thousands participate annually.

Arts & Entertainment

Visit the Georgetown or Acton Fall Fair, Georgetown Highland Games, a classic car show, or the Leathertown Festival in Acton - fun for the whole family. The Halton Hills Public Library and Cultural Centre, includes a fabulous theatre and art gallery. Halton Hills is home to two excellent theatre groups: Globe Productions and Georgetown Little Theatre, staging quality plays and musicals to the community. Halton Hills also has an extensive and vibrant music and visual arts community.

Real. Friendly. Lively. Our community.
