

Take part in free hands-on and behind-the-scenes arts and cultural events September 29, 30 & October 1

Canadian Citizenship Ceremony

Friday at Halton Hills Public Library / Cultural Centre

Join in this celebration of Canada's newest citizens in the John Elliott Theatre.

Dream Catcher Workshop

Saturday at Halton Hills Public Library / Cultural Centre

Come build a personalized Dream Catcher with artist Marie McLeod in this hands-on workshop designed for all ages.

Exploring the Helson Gallery

Saturday at the Helson Gallery / Cultural Centre

Looking games, colouring activities and paper crafts will encourage young visitors to explore an exciting exhibition of art from Wenjiang, China.

Drop-in Dance Classes

Saturday in the John Elliott Theatre / Cultural Centre

Learn some new moves with local dance instructors.

Credit Valley Artisans Open Studio

Saturday at Cedarvale Cottage

Tour our studio in historic Cedarvale Cottage, check out the facilities for pottery, weaving, printmaking and painting, and try a fun, hands-on art activity.

Community Journaling Project

Saturday at both branches of the Halton Hills Public Library

Follow writing prompts to share your ideas and stories in one of these community journals. Presented in partnership with the Georgetown Wordsmiths.

Art with Anne of Green Gables

Saturday at Norval Presbyterian Church

Create colourful window decorations with the Credit Valley Artisans. This workshop is offered as part of the "Not-So-Empty-Bowls" fundraiser for the Lucy Maud Montgomery Museum.

Rock the Hills Band Crawl

Saturday at various locations in downtown Georgetown

Local emerging acts take over downtown Georgetown in a variety of pop-up locations. Come & hear the next generation!

Canadian Mural

Saturday and Sunday at both branches of Halton Hills Public Library

Participate in the creation of a colourful Canada 150 themed mural.

Doors Open

Sunday at locations across Halton Hills

Celebrating Canada 150, this year's Doors Open highlights pre-Confederation buildings. Take a local town and country historic tour and time travel to the era of our country's founding.

For complete event listings and details visit culturedays.ca