SKILLS EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Skills Exchange: Intergenerational learning where experience meets enthusiasm!

Launching this fall: DIY programs for teens and tweens. Learn something new – from traditional to high tech: classic crafts with a modern twist!

Knowledgeable instructors will share their expertise through hands-on workshops:

- Explore fashion design through upcycling your old clothes or creating your own cosplay armour.
- Revive the art of woodburning and customize your own project.
- Pioneer the latest in robotics or brighten up your winter with the beautiful Japanese art of temari.

Visit www.hhpl.on.ca for a full list of the Skills Exchange programs.

FUN AT THE LIBRARY!

Munch to the Movies on PA Days

On P.A. days, families can bring their lunches and watch a fun feature film. Limited seating. No registration required.

Book Clubs for Kids

Once a month book discussions for kids who are strong readers. Register online or in person. Acton & Georgetown. Child must reach minimum age limit by year's end.

Book Clubs:

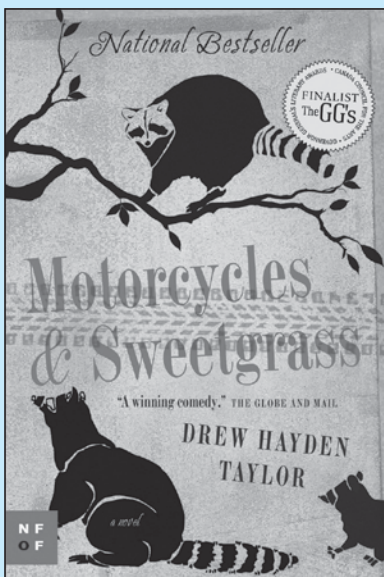

- Cocoa Club Jr for ages 7-9
- Cocoa Club for ages 10-12
- Spinebreakers for teens

Family Escape Room

Our Family Escape Room is fun, family-friendly, and library-themed. Players will combine their problem solving skills in order to overcome obstacles and “escape” from a room.

Visit hhpl.on.ca for more information. Fee: $15 per team.

ONE BOOK ONE HALTON HILLS 2017

Created as a way to foster literacy in our community, One Book, One Halton Hills encourages everyone to read and discuss the same book. This year, we are excited to have selected an acclaimed novel by award-winning author Drew Hayden Taylor. Quill and Quire calls it a “charming story about the importance of balance and belief – and a little bit of magic – in everyone's life”.

Don't miss “An Evening with Drew Hayden Taylor” – Wednesday, September 20th at 7:00 pm in the John Elliot Theatre. Check our website for more information on tickets and all of our One Book programming.
