

Additional Residential Units

From By-law amendment 2024-0098

Urban Residential Zones – Zoning Information Sheet

An Additional Residential Unit (ARU) is permitted within, or in a building detached from a Single detached, Semi detached or Townhouse dwelling.

A total of two additional residential units may be permitted on a lot in one of the following scenarios;

- Up to two additional residential units within the main residential building where the combined floor area of the units occupied no more than 60% of the total floor area of the main residential building; or up to 220 square metres of floor area, whichever is lesser; or
- One additional residential unit within the main residential building, occupying no more than 40% of the floor area of the main residential building, or 110 square metres of floor area, whichever is lesser; and/or one detached ARU no larger than 40% of the floor area of the main residential building, or 90 square metres of floor area, whichever is lesser

Notwithstanding the above, where an ARU is completely contained within the basement of the main residential building it may occupy the entire floor area of the basement.

For an addition to the main residential building to accommodate an ARU, the standards based on the Zone of the property shall apply; Halton Hills Comprehensive Zoning By-law 2010-0050.
